Northern California Annual Update on California Early Start, Early Care and Education Services

FAIRFIELD - The Solano County Office of Education, located at 5100 Business Center Drive in Fairfield, is hosting the Annual Update on California Early Start, Early Care and Education Services event this Friday, February 1, 2019, from 9:00 am-12:00 pm. The event is sponsored by the Infant Development Association (IDA) of California. Topics addressed during this Annual Update will include current trends in Early Intervention such as: early childhood suspension and expulsion (supporting children, families, and practitioners), higher education and workforce development in early intervention, and will have a multi-agency panel of statewide experts sharing current perspectives on early intervention programs. Information and updates from the Department of Developmental Services (DDS) will also be provided. Solano County Office of Education Superintendent Lisette Estrella-Henderson shared her support of this event saying, "We are pleased to host the Northern California Annual Update focusing on young children here in Solano County. This is a critically valuable opportunity to have multiple agencies come together to share best practices with continue focus on research based effective strategies that have a positive impact on student outcomes."

This event is open to service providers, families, community members, and early childhood practitioners. Registration information is available online at the Infant Development Association of California website www.idaofcal.org or in person on the day of the event. Please join us for this collaborative and informative opportunity.
