Oath of Office Ceremony for Lisette Estrella Henderson County Superintendent of Schools

The Oath of Office Ceremony for Lisette Estrella-Henderson, County Superintendent of Schools, took place today, January 9, 2017 from 4:30-5:30 P.M. at the Solano County Office of Education. Ms. Estrella-Henderson is the 23rd County Superintendent to serve in this position.

The program included Tommy Welch, Associate Superintendent, who welcomed over 100 guest in attendance along with opening comments by former Solano County Superintendent of Schools, Jay Speck. The program also included the Presentation of Colors by the Armijo High School Junior ROTC Color Guard of the Fairfield Suisun Unified School District (FSUSD) and music by the Benicia High School Jazz of the Benicia Unified School District (BUSD). Senator Bill Dodd performed the Oath of Office. Linda Seifert, former Solano County Supervisor-District 2, provided the closing remarks.

“It was an honor to administer the oath of office for our next Superintendent of the Solano County Office of Education,” said Senator Bill Dodd. “I would like to congratulate Superintendent Lisette Estrella-Henderson, and I look forward to working with her to protect and advance educational opportunities in Solano County.”
