Solano County Office of Education Announces Attendance Awareness Public Service Announcement/Poster Contest Winners

FAIRFIELD – The Solano County Office of Education (SCOE) is pleased to announce the winners of their 2018 Attendance Awareness Public Service Announcement (PSA)/Poster Contest. “September was Attendance Awareness Month and thanks to the continued support of our community sponsors and our Solano County schools the Solano County Office of Education was, once again, able to host this countywide competition,” said Lisette Estrella-Henderson, Solano County Superintendent of Schools. “This year’s Attendance Awareness Contest attracted over 107 participants who used their artistic talents to spread the word about the critical role good school attendance has on student achievement. While we celebrate during the month of September, attendance matters every day.”

Congratulations to all 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winners in each category listed below. Students will be recognized at their respective school district’s November board meeting.
