Solano Charter of the Association of California School Administrators Every Student Succeeding Dinner and Scholarship Awards Event

The Solano Charter of the Association of California School Administrators (ACSA) will host a recognition event to honor students who have demonstrated resilience and achieved success. The event will be held in partnership with the Solano County Office of Education (SCOE) at SCOE's administrative building, located at 5100 Business Center Drive, Fairfield, CA on Wednesday, May 30, 2018, at 5:00 PM. "It is truly a privilege to work with our area administrators to honor deserving students in Solano County," says County Superintendent of Schools Lisette Estrella-Henderson.

Every Student Succeeding honorees will be featured in a video highlighting their challenges and accomplishments. The Region 4 winner will be honored at ACSA's Leadership Summit in November. Region 4 includes charters in the counties of Mendocino, Lake, Sonoma, Napa, Marin, Solano as well as the Vallejo City Charter. In addition, ACSA will award college scholarships to several graduating students who may use the funds toward their 2018-19 school year expenses.
